

Welcome

I grew up in Jalisco, Mexico, where food brought family together and stories were shared around the table. Those moments shaped who I am and how I cook.

In 1996, I came to the United States carrying those memories with me. Cooking the food I grew up with always felt like home, and it became my way of sharing where I come from.

Tequila Fuego honors that journey. Tequila represents celebration. Fuego is the fire behind our kitchen and the passion of the team that brings each dish to life.

Thank you for being here and for sharing this experience with us.
